

Business Safety

Training for Small, Medium, and Large Businesses

Professional offices and businesses of all types have long been the target of criminals, con artists, and opportunists alike. In a professional work environment, employees and employers alike often fail to recognize the signs of criminal activity and do not take appropriate action to prevent such incidents. It is often hard to recognize, understand, and prevent the crimes within a business setting without expert advice and guidance. Standards Training & Consulting provides the tools, resources, and education to help address and deal with many issues facing businesses both large and small. The following are some of the courses and services offered:

- "ALICE" Violent Intruder / Active Shooter Training
